

Table of Contents

Preface	v
To the Path of Integrity	vii
Brief Biography of the most Venerable Shwekyin Sayadaw	viii
1. Reverence for the Buddha, who embodies knowledge, wisdom, morality, and ascetic practices (suta, paññā, sīla, and dhutaṅga)	1-8
2. Acknowledging the Buddha's virtue of tolerance (khantī)	9-11
3. Expressing admiration for the Buddha, characterized by virtues of concentration and patience (dhiti and khantī)	12-14
4. Commending the Buddha's consistency in aligning his actions with his words (yathāvāvī and tathākārī)	15
5. Portraying the serene essence of the Buddha's teachings or Buddha Sasana's Beauty	16-37
6. Extolling the Blessed One with affection and compassion (mettā and dayā)	38-43

7. Appreciating the Buddha's virtue of treating all equally, regardless of circumstances (tādhi)	44-51
8. A lasting yearning to catch a glimpse of the Buddha	52-62
9. How meeting the Buddha leaves an indelible love in one's heart	63-65
10. Recognizing the Buddha as the foremost among all noble individuals	66-75
11. Personal aspirations and contemplations	76
12. Glossary	77-86
13. Alphabetical Pādsas	87-96

