

CONTENTS

Page

Part I

The Original Homeland of the Mons(Migration) 1

Part II

Chinese and Japanese Accounts on Mon Ethnic Identity 15

(I) Mon-Khmer Empire of Fu-nan & their Relations with India & China 18

(II) The Old Chinese Descriptions on Ancient Mon Known as Kun Lun and their Cities 27

Part III

The Advent (Coming) of Indian Civilization to Southeast Asia 31

Part IV

Formation of Rāmaññadesa = ရှမ်းမည = ရမညဒေသ 43

I. Eastern Mon Kingdom of Dvāravatī in Old Siam 63

II. Sanskrit and Pali words in Myanmar Came through Mon 83

III. Theory of G.H. Luce 85

IV. High Standard of Mon Literatures 87

V. Mon Inscriptions and Vocabulary 89

Part V

I Old Mon Kingdom of Haribhujaya in Northern Siam 105

II. Terracotta Votive Tablets Bearing Pali and Mon Inscriptions 109

III. Narai Cave Oldest Mon Inscription of the Eastern Mon Kingdom of Dvāravatī 124

IV. " Nyah Kur People " Remnants of the Dvāravatī Old Mon 127

Appendix

Old Press-cuttings in Relation to Mon History