This book is compiled with the intention to widen general knowledge of arbitration for you as possible as I can. At present time legal practitioners, law students, law learners, law firms, businessmen, companies, joint-ventures and business organisations in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar are required to widen general knowledge of arbitration especially including the new Arbitration Law of 2016, the New York Convention of 1958, the International Commercial Arbitration of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Arbitration Rules, the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and other essential Arbitration Rules which are described as appendices respectively. Now this book will give you those needs thoroughly.
