

INTRODUCTION	i
CHAPTER VI
Establishment of Caretaker Government
The object of dominating the AFPFL federation	1
Appointment of State Ministers	9
Domestic Peace	19
The entry into the legal fold of the Pyithu Yebaw Organization	24
Mon Pyithu Tat Oo Organization enters the legal fold	27
The entry into the legal fold of the Communist Parties	28
General Amnesty Order	33
Dissolution of the Hluttaw	54
Dissolution of the Pyusawhtis	65
Labour Problems	73
Collapse of Unity within Political Parties	75
The involvement of the Tatmadaw	79
The Reaction of Political Organizations	100
The General Prepares to form a government	116
CHAPTER VII
The Caretaker Government and the promise to hold election
Formation of Caretaker Government	124
To Hold Elections within six months	129
General Ne Win resigns from the Post of Prime Minister	138
The Problem of altering Section 116 of the Constitution	142
The formation of Caretaker Government (Second time) and the declaration of election date	154
CHAPTER VIII
The Cessation of Feudalism in the Shan States
The beginning of anti feudalism and the power of the Sawbwas	162
The Prerogatives of the Shan Sawbwas in the Union of Myanmar	171
Anti-Feudalistic Activities gain momentum in the Shan States	177
The Programme of relinquishing administrative powers by the Shan Sawbwas	185
The AFPFL Government and the abolition of Feudalism in the Shan States	189
Complicated Shan States politics during the AFPFL Government	194
The Caretaker Government's performance with regard to the cessation of the feudal system	201
CHAPTER IX
The 1960 Election
Discussion in the Hluttaw on holding of election	219
Responses of some Newspapers on Election announcement	227
Political Parties welcome the election	229
Preliminary Election arrangements of the Caretaker Government	233
The beginning of votes canvassing	241
Announcement of election policy programme	244
Religion complicates canvassing of votes	256
Competitive position of major parties at the time of announcement of election date	261
Provision of organizational requirements of Stable AFPFL	263
Increase in the momentum of the Clean AFPFL Leaders	266
More persuasive efforts of the Stable AFPFL Leaders	271
Competitive canvassing of votes by Pa Ma Nya Ta and Other Contestants	274
The Newspapers-their competitive writing and persuasion	277
Result of the Elections	280
Appendices	291
Index	327