

Contents

1. Kamma is the cause and Vipāka is the effect 448
2. Two kinds of kamma:
Sahajāta kamma and Nānakkhaṇikakamma 450
3. Four kinds of kamma due to their time of giving result: 451
Dīṭṭhadhammavedaniyakamma
Uppajjavedaniyakamma
Aparāpariyavedaniyakamma and Ahosikamma
4. Four kinds of kamma due to the power of sources of giving their result 453
Kāmāvacara kusala kamma
Kāmāvacara akusala kamma
Rūpāvacara kusala kamma
Arūpāvacara kusala kamma
5. How kamma classifies by analysis: 454
The story of a female piglet.
6. The eight vicissitudes of life 460
7. Kammassakatā samādiṭṭhi 466
8. Nobody can escape the vicissitudes of life 467
9. Three kinds of kamma: 473
Kāyakamma, vicīkamma and manokamma.

Contents

10. Vipāka means maturity which is the effect 482
As there are 4 periods in mango fruits:
Flowering period, fruit appearing period,
fruit maturing period and fruit ripening period,
so also there are 4 periods in vipāka:
Volition period, kamma period, sign period and resultant period.
11. The transition of life from the old existence to the new 490
12. Gati sign can be changed by āsannakamma 493
13. Three kinds of vedanā: sukkhavedanā, dukkhāvedanā, upekkhāvedanā and how to note them to gain dhamma 498
14. In the arisings of vipāka cittas, there are two of five kinds, that is, ten viññāṇas 513
15. The four unpreventables:
Ageing, ailing, death and the effects of bad kamma 515