

CONTENT

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Opening Address   |     |
| Welcoming Speech  |     |
| Ancient Knowledge and the Use of LandscapeWalled Settlements in Lower MyanmarElizabeth Moore                  | 1   |
| Mandala: from Sacred Origins to Sovereign Affairsin Southeast AsiaRosita Dellios                              | 28  |
| Traditions of Knowledge in Old Javanese Literature, c. 1000-1500Kenneth R. Hall                                   | 59  |
| The Min Raja-gri Satam of Mahajeya-thein: Makinga 'History' for the KingJacques P. Leider              | 100 |
| Life in Seventeenth Century Burma through Dutch EyesWil O. Dijk   | 121 |
| The Tradition of Statecraft in 18 th Century MyanmarTun Aung Chain                                     | 141 |
| Imagination and Knowledge: some Comments on Rumoursin the Mid-nineteenth Century Konbaung CourtAurore Candier | 165 |
| The Return of Shway Yoe: James George Scott as a WriterThet Tun   | 192 |
| The Tradition of Sand Pagodas in MyanmarNi Ni Myint   | 221 |
| Mirrored in Short Stories: Some Glimpses of Myanmar Lifeand Society in the 20 th CenturyThaw Kaung | 258 |